Claim 13.

Dear Mr. Fuharly:

Based on the document of Edna's agreement with the school, she was to be paid yearly, at 8%.

She has not been paid since 2017 it appears.

We forwarded the signed agreement, a copy of the last 1099 they issued her and the calculation of what has been owed since.

We see from your letter of 11.16.23 on case 22-00056 we have time till 12.16.23 to request reconsideration.

After reviewing all the tangible assets being sold there should have been funds to pay this. We are aware it's not a secured claim but owed none the less.

Had the real estate, and oil rights been sold at FMV. rather than at about 10% on the dollar enough would have been raised to fully pay all debts.

Dear Edna Mae:

Thank you for your gift of $500.00 which we recorded on December 20, 2017. As the fall semester winds down, many of our students look back and reflect on the experiences of their semester at OVU and anticipate the ones to come. To others, this may conclude their season with OVU. It is our prayer that each of our students, whether returning, graduating, or otherwise continuing their journey, remembers a time full of joy, achievement, and growth like we do.

You have been part of an answer to so many prayers for this semester. With your help and God's blessing, we will complete many such semesters. Thank you for your support for Ohio Valley University and the mission that we are pursuing by God's grace. I pray that God will continue to bless you during this holiday season.

We deeply appreciate everything you do!

For the students,

Jack Thorn
Vice President of Advancement

P.S. Merry Christmas!

Ohio Valley University provided no goods or services on behalf of the donor in consideration of the gift received.
